

Nollenberger Capital Partners, Inc. is Pleased to Announce Phyllis Kay Dryden has Joined its Advisory Board

SAN FRANCISCO – March 21, 2007 – Nollenberger Capital Partners, Inc. (NCPI) is pleased to announce Phyllis Kay Dryden, formerly senior vice president and general counsel at Charles Schwab, has joined its Advisory Board. Ms. Dryden has served in the financial services consulting and legal capacity for the last 35 years.

“Ms. Dryden’s extensive background in financial services makes her an exceptional asset to Nollenberger Capital Partners’ Advisory Board,” said Bruce Nollenberger, president and CEO of Nollenberger Capital Partners. “We value her diverse professional and strategic work with many industry leaders, such as Charles Schwab, and look forward to leveraging her experience and insight to enhance Nollenberger Capital Partners.”

Ms. Dryden is currently handling west coast business development and financial services for Mitchell Madison Group (MMG), a strategy consulting practice serving multinational corporations. Before joining MMG, she was a senior vice president, general counsel and secretary at Del Monte Foods and senior vice president and general counsel at Charles Schwab in San Francisco. Ms. Dryden also spent part of her professional career with Lucasfilm Ltd.; Intel Corporation; McCutchen, Doyle, Brown, & Enerson; and Coudert Brothers.

Ms. Dryden has amassed extensive and diverse experience serving on financial institution and not-for-profit Boards of Directors. She currently serves on the Gartmore Mutual Fund Board of Directors and the Golden Gate Bank’s Strategic Advisory Board. She is a lifetime member of the American Law Institute. Ms. Dryden concurrently serves on the Boards of Directors of the Smithsonian Institution Libraries and the City College of San Francisco Foundation.

She attained her B.A. in Political Science from Barnard College and was awarded her J.D. from Columbia University Law School. Ms. Dryden has also completed Executive Programs at the University of Pennsylvania Wharton School of Business and Stanford University.
