

Nollenberger Capital Partners Appoints Douglas Heske to its Board of Directors

SAN FRANCISCO, July 8, 2008 – Nollenberger Capital Partners, Inc. (NCPI), a privately held investment banking and investment advisory firm, today announced it has appointed Douglas Heske to its Board of Directors. Mr. Heske joined the Firm in 2004 as Executive Vice President and Partner and has since been promoted to Chief Operating Officer.

“Doug’s appointment to our Board of Directors reaffirms his dedication and involvement in the Firm,” said Bruce Nollenberger, President and CEO of Nollenberger Capital Partners. “Doug manages the Private Client Services group with exceptional skill and has guided this profitable division to incredible success.”

Mr. Heske joined Nollenberger Capital Partners in April 2004 as an Executive Vice President and Partner, and has since been promoted to Chief Operating Officer. He brings to the firm over 22 years of experience in the securities business and over 14 years of management leadership. Mr. Heske manages the Private Client Services group and is actively involved in the Public Finance group, as well as other areas of the Firm. Mr. Heske joined NCPI from Piper Jaffray where he was its Regional Director and San Francisco Branch Manager. During his 13 years at Piper Jaffray, he launched Piper Jaffray’s wealth management business in San Francisco and led its significant growth across California.

Mr. Heske has served on the Executive Committee of the SIFMA-Western District since 1996 and was acting Chairman during 2002-2004. He was the Board President of the San Francisco-based charitable organization “The Edgewood Center for Children and Families,” and still serves as a board member.

Mr. Heske has a B.S. in Finance from Providence College in Providence, Rhode Island, and did his postgraduate work at the Daniels School of Business at the University of Denver.
