

Nollenberger Capital Partners Welcomes
L. Bruce Lanni to its Wealth Management Team

SAN FRANCISCO, November 16, 2009 – Nollenberger Capital Partners, Inc. (NCPI), a privately held wealth management and investment advisory firm, today announced that L. Bruce Lanni has joined its Wealth Management team as a Vice President and Portfolio Strategist. Mr. Lanni was most recently Senior Oil Analyst/Vice President of A.G. Edwards & Sons. Prior to this position, he was the Senior Oil Analyst/Executive Director at CIBC World Markets, now part of Oppenheimer & Co.

“Bruce comes to us having an outstanding reputation as an inspiring and knowledgeable leader and will apply his deep and longstanding industry relationships and experience to benefit our Wealth Management team and, most importantly, our clients. I am confident that his transition to NCPI will greatly enhance our financial advisors’ portfolio strategies, distinctively offered to our valued clients,” said Doug Heske, President of Nollenberger Capital Partners.

As a top ranked equity research analyst in Institutional Investor and formerly part of the Wall Street Analyst All Star Team for stock picking and earnings accuracy, Mr. Lanni has demonstrated strengths and authority in equity research coverage relating to the oil and gas industry. This includes macro fundamental analysis of the crude oil market as well as global oil price forecasting and marketing margin analysis.

Mr. Lanni earned a B.S. in Geology at University of California at Davis before pursuing graduate studies towards an M.S. in Geology at California State University at Northridge.
