

Nollenberger Capital Partners, Inc. is Pleased to Announce John S. Lutz has Joined its Advisory Board

SAN FRANCISCO – March 20, 2007 – Nollenberger Capital Partners, Inc. (NCPI) is pleased to announce John S. Lutz (“Jack”) has joined its Advisory Board. Mr. Lutz has served in the legal profession, with emphasis on matters involving the financial services industry, for the last 36 years.

“Jack’s depth and breadth in financial services law will undoubtedly benefit Nollenberger Capital Partners’ Advisory Board,” said Bruce Nollenberger, president and CEO of Nollenberger Capital Partners. “He has represented top-tier financial services firms, and brings with him many years of SEC and NYSE industry knowledge. All of his expertise will serve NCPI immensely.”

Mr. Lutz is currently a director at Fairfield and Woods, P.C. Prior to his current position, he was a partner at LeBoeuf, Lamb, Greene & MacRae, LLP, and a partner at Kelly, Stansfield & O’Donnell in Denver, Colorado. He also spent part of his legal career with Boettcher & Company, the U.S. Department of Justice, and the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. Additionally, Mr. Lutz has served as a member of the National Arbitration Committee of the NASD for five years (1987-1991). He was also a member of the State Regulation Committee of the Securities Industry Association for four years while at Boettcher & Company, and held several securities licenses.

Mr. Lutz is also a member of many professional and civic organizations. He is a life member of the American Law Institute and an Arbitrator for New York Stock Exchange, American Stock Exchange, National Association of Securities Dealers, The Chicago Board of Options Exchange, and the American Arbitration Association. He is currently a Board member for Recording for the Blind and Dyslexic, Rocky Mountain Division.

Mr. Lutz earned his B.A. from Brown University in Political Science and graduated with his J.D. from the University of Denver College of Law.
