

Nollenberger Capital Partners, Inc. is Pleased to Announce Rosalind Cohen-Baruch has Joined the Firm as Director of Human Resources

SAN FRANCISCO – March 21, 2007 – Nollenberger Capital Partners, Inc. (NCPI) is pleased to announce Rosalind Cohen-Baruch has joined the Firm as Director of Human Resources. Ms. Cohen-Baruch comes to NCPI from Banc of America Securities in San Francisco, where she was Vice President, Business Support Manager of Equity Research.

“Ms. Cohen-Baruch will be an incredible asset to NCPI, particularly during this time when the Firm is expanding,” said Bruce Nollenberger, President and CEO of Nollenberger Capital Partners. “She will help us take care of our most important resource, our employees, as well as attract new talent.”

Ms. Cohen-Baruch comes to Nollenberger Capital Partners from Banc of America Securities, LLC, in San Francisco. During her seven year tenure with the investment bank, she was responsible for management, retention, and the professional development of Equity Research Associates and Assistants, firm-wide. She represented the Equity Research team on the NASD Compliance Committee, and developed and interpreted department policy and procedures.

Ms. Cohen-Baruch also spent part of her career as the Assistant Director of Residence Life at the University of San Francisco, CA, and the University of Oregon, in Eugene, OR.

She is a member of the Society for Human Resource Management, a professional organization whose mission is to serve the needs of HR professionals by providing the most essential and comprehensive resources available.

She earned her B.A. in Psychology and M.A. in Public and Educational Management from the State University of New York at Stony Brook.
