

Nollenberger Capital Partners Welcomes Brooke Shields to its Advisory Committee

SAN FRANCISCO, June 3, 2008 – Nollenberger Capital Partners, Inc. (NCPI), a privately held investment banking and advisory services firm, today announced that Brooke Shields has joined its Advisory Committee.

“Brooke brings strategy and marketing expertise, as well as a strong entrepreneurial spirit to the Advisory Committee,” said Bruce Nollenberger, President and CEO of Nollenberger Capital Partners. “We are very fortunate to have her join the team.”

Ms. Shields’ experience ranges from global high technology companies to small businesses in the San Francisco Bay Area and Costa Rica. She has held senior executive roles in Marketing and Business Development at Autodesk and Sun Microsystems. In 2003 Ms. Shields founded the BXS Group, a Bay Area consulting practice providing interim senior management, strategy, business, and marketing services to small and medium size growth companies. Ms. Shields also currently serves as the Vice President of Business Operations at tcg: The Communication Group.

In addition to the NCPI Advisory Committee, Ms. Shields serves on a variety of boards. They include the San Francisco-based mental health agency Edgewood Center for Children and Families, and the Astia Advisory Board, a national organization focused on the funding and growth of high-potential, high-growth women-led startups.

Ms. Shields received her education at the University of Massachusetts, Drew University, and the Lincoln School in San Jose, Costa Rica.
